Full Report on Page Two.

NUMBER 8048.

Yesterday's Circulation, 48,100

WASHINGTON, SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 3, 1914.

Fourteen Pages

PRICE ONE CENT.

Attorney Hawken Said to Have Gone to Charlestown, Presumably After Missing Manager Wanted Here.

Efforts of Brokerage Firm to Recover Stocks Transferred From Capital to New York, Where They Were Sold.

The mysterious departure of As stant United States Attorney Samel McComas Hawken last night for ome point in West Virginia was rumor at the City Hall 21,100 worth of stock from N. L arpenter & Co., Washington brokwas Charleston, W. Va.

out the deputy's movements or object it that he is out on the Harrison-Mae case is believed generally. Did Mr. Hawken leave on the Harrin-Malone business?" one official was position won't allow me to

"Has your office really got a line on ther Harrison or Miss Malone?'
'You will have to excuse me; I would hadly tell you but for the peculiar potion I am placed in." prosecutor's office really has a

If the prosecutor's office really has a out tip in that case, it has not taken the police into its confidence.

"I know nothing new in the matter," said Detective Evans of headquarters, ho with Detective Warren, is working in the case. "I still have the Harrison and Malone warrants in my pocket." Still, it was pointed out at the City Hall, Mr. Hawken should have little ifficulty effecting the detention of the couple if he should find them until the warrants arrived. errants arrived.

Efforts Are ransferred.

Efforts by members of the brokerage rm of N. L. Carpenter & Co. to recover he stocks were transferred from Wash ngton to New York this afternoon. The act that some of the stock has been aced through the New York transfer ffice in a way that shows just whose ands the stocks have passed through believed to be responsible for this arpenter firm, and L.J. Vorhous, a ew York lawyer whom he has engaged make an investigation of the case. It for New York this afternoon with ord that they did not know when they They refused absolutely uld return. They refused absolutely discuss the new developments folwing the tracing of the stock. Joseph (Continued on Second Page.)

WILL ADMINISTER

MGR. THOMAS SHAHAN, Rector of the Catholic University, Which Is To Receive Half Million Dollars From Society Next Week.

Wall Street Shows Little Interterest in Directorship Withdrawals by Firm.

NEW YORK, Jan. S .- The New ork Stock Exchange today failed to how great interest in or attack ment of the withdrawal of J. P. Morcan and other members of the big banking house from the directorates of some thirty corporations. At the Morgan offices it was stated that but very few knew even that he had there was nothing to add to the formal statement issue yesterday by the head of the firm. Trading was comparatively light on the Stock Ex-Town, W. Va., but another thought change. There was a slight decline on the opening, but prices rallied during the second hour, when trad-Few Knew of Actions are endeavored to cover shorts.

Morgan did not visit his office today, and it being only a half session of the Street, few of the powers of the finanappeared at their offices Thomas W. Lamont acted as spoa man for the Morgan firm. He di played considerable heat when told that the belief seemed to be growing that to directorships surrendered might not re-resent a real withdrawal from corpora tions of dominating influence "As Mr. Morgan stated yesterda; other withdrawals will follow," Lamor

Ishpeming and Negaunee Iron Unions. demanding investigations of the copper strike and an inquiry by the Government into the shooting and ejection of Charles H. Moyer from Hancock, were today forwarded to President Wilson, Governor Ferris, and members of the Michigan Congressional delegation. The resolutions cited the deportation of Moyer, the Red Jacket panic disaster, the imprisonment of the editors and publishers of the Finnish daily newspaper Tyomies and the filling

ROCKVILLE WARS OVER "CUPID"

Rockville, the Gretna Green of Washington, is torn by internal strife-a war over "Cupid," as it The "marrying parsons" have married so many "eloping couples" in the last year that some of Rockville's influential citizens are up in arms about it. W. W. Corcoran has visited the scene of battle and writes entertainingly of it in The Sunday Times.

Big Gift for Catholic University Tuesday

Demand New Charter for the District

SUM OF $500,000

Baltimore Next Week.

A check for $500,000 will be placed in the hands of Cardinal G:bbons next Tuesday afternoon for Catholic University, Washington, D. C., as a contribution from the Knights of Columbus of the United

This is the largest contribution learning under the auspices of the Catholic Church in America and the forward. It is proposed to found vantage of the weak." fifty scholarships at the university with the funds by which the young men receiving them can be better prepared for the priesthood

Pope Commended Efforts. olic Church of the world stood ready it may need help.

Added impetus was given the work men's society. when Cardinal Gibbons celebrated his jubilee, and as a memorial to him there was erected at the university a handsome building known as the Gibbon

For nearly three years the knights have been working incessantly to accumulate the half million that will be their donation toward the education of the Catholic youth of this country Practically every large city in the counamount each city gave will not be announced until next Tuesday, when the money will have passed to the Cardinal. Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty, of Philadelphia, will present the gif on behalf of the order of which he is the head. The presentation will take place in the parlor of the home of the Cardinal on North Charles street, Baltimore, and it will be made the occasion of an impressive gathering. The other two Cardinals in this country, all the archbishops and bishops and other

Flaherty To Present It.

There will also be presen: a large delegation of prominent members of the Knights of Columbus and other laymen interested in the work of the university. Supreme Knight Flaherty will present the check with a speech. versity are:
Vice president—Right Rev. Camillus
P. Maes, of Covington, Ky.
Treasurer—Michael Jenkins, of Balti-

Assistant secretary and treasurer-Very Rev. George A. Dougherty.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 3 .- Running wild down the steep Conshohocken hill, with brakes refusing to work, a trolley car today jumped a switch tore through the corner of a store, knocked down a tree and several poles, and brought death to one and serious injuries to eight others. Baker Getty, the motorman, had his head torn off under the wheels, and James Collins the conductor, is in a critical condition as the result of the crushing of his body.

The others were bruised and lace-rated by flying glass federal loss was neavy. Many of these wounded seemi-aysterical. They seemi-aysterical federal loss was neavy. Many of these wounded refugees are semi-aysterical. They say the streets of Ojinaga are asked by either side from this time on This, it is expected, will imbue the troops on both sides with the courage of the men meet the increased on the form this time on This, it is expected, will imbue the troops on both sides with the courage of the men meet the increased determination.

Rebels who were repuised when they made a concerted rush at one section of Ojinaga. Thursday, assert that they have compelled to abandon their wounded for a short time. When they returned to their original position a few moments later, they say, the, found for a short time. When they returned to their original position a few moments later, they say, the, found and superseded ordered in the services of the men meet the increased of determination on. This, it is expected, will imbue the troops on both sides with the courage of the men meet the increased determination on. This, it is expected, will imbue the troops on both sides with the courage of the men meet the increased determination on this determination of Ojinaga. Thursday, assert that they have consected rush at one section of Ojinaga. Thursday, assert that they be made a concerted rush at one section of Ojinaga. Thursday, assert that they be made a concerted rush at one section of Ojinaga. Thursday, assert that they be made a concerted rush at one section of Ojinaga. Thursday, assert that they be made a concerted r vild down the steep Conshohocken

FEATURES

Marshall Says Morgan Withdrawals Are a Genuine Reform

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 3 .- "I hope that I am not mistaken that this is a genuine reform," said Vice President Cardinal Gibbons Will Receive Thomas R. Marshall today when asked for his opinion on Check at His Residence in the withdrawals of the J. P. Morgan & Co. firm members from many interlocking directorates.

> "I haven't had time to study how far-reaching that withdrawal is," he said. "If it goes to the extent that I believe things are going in America it is very satisfactory the to the people and will help wonderfully in pacifying public sentiment. I hope the movement is going to the point here; it is a genuine business proposition and not one that is intended to fool the people."

Declaring that interlocking directorates were an ever made to this institution of "economic mistake," the Vice President said that while men have a right to succeed and that the strong always money will come at a time when the have won and always will win, "it is economically and institution is, planning great strides morally wrong for all strong men to combine to take ad-

The Vice President decried punishment. "I pin my faith on the consciences of men and not on the severity of punishment," he said, "and Lam always willing to believe the good things. My own view is that what is needed in nal Gibbons were commended by the Present Pope, who added that the Cath-

The Vice President will leave for Washington late this to help this great institution whenever afternoon, stopping at Bristol, Pa., to address a young

REBELS IN OJINAGA OUTSKIRTS; BATTLE ON HAND-TO-HAND

PRESIDIO, Tex., Jan. 3.—A general assault upon Ojinaga by General Ortega's Mexican rebels began shortly after midnight, and although at daylight the federals still held the town, the enemy had advanced on every side. In some cases the rebels even invaded the outskirts of the prominent members of the hierarchy have been invited to witness the cere-

The rebels opened their assault with a terrific cannonading and for hour; thereafter a deafening artillery duel continued. Its effect has not yet been learned. Both federal and rebel shells burst on the American side of the river, will present the check with a speech, and the cardinal, as president of the executive officers of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will then formally acknowledge the gift on behalf of the faculty and state just what use will be made of the fund.

Following the presentation the cardinal will entertain the visitors. The presentation ceremonies are scheduled for the cardinal the other officials of the university.

Copies of resolutions adopted by the Copies of the university, and state just the cardinal the cardinal the visitors. The presentation ceremonies are scheduled for the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of the university, will speak for that body. Mgr. Thomas J. Shahan, president of t however, and Major McNamee, the commander of the conclusion soon. The defenders were holding on gamely, however. There has been no decrease in their cannon or rifle fire, and it is believed they must have received a fram supply of amminition since yesterday.

In the Streets of Ojinaga

Judging from the number of wounded coming to Presidio for treatment, the coming to Presidio for treatment, the coming to Presidio for treatment, the federal loss was neavy. Many of these wounded refugees are semi-systerical. They say the streets of Olinaga are "filled with dead," and that others are so badly wounded by bursting shells so badly wounded by bursting shells so badly wounded by bursting shells that they cannot attempt to reach the American side. American army sur-

TOMORROW'S

CITIZENS TO ASK SEPARATE SYSTEM

Mass Meeting Set for This Evening to Obtain Change in Government Here.

To obtain a charter under the erms of which the citizens of the District of Columbia will establish their own form of government which shall be entirely independent of Congress, is the purpose of a mass meeting that has been called by the District of Columbia Suffrage

The meeting will be held in Mar low Hall, 811 . E street this evening Basis of Liberty. "The charter has been the basis of all great movements in the cause of liberty," explained Thomas E. Will, the President of Masonic Mutual resident of the league, today. "Eng and's position in the world is based upon the guaranties of the Magna charter and our own prized liberties are founded upon the Federal Constitution -the great charter under which our Government operates. So the first move in effecting the enfranchisement of the people of the District should be to ob people of the District should be to ob-tain a charter.

"The present movement is unique," he continued, "in that it no longer con-templates a form of government under control of the Federal authorities but out in which municipal affairs shall be entirely in the hands of the people. Give us our charter and we will determine

Mr. Will lays great stress upon the elimination of all Federal control over numicipal affairs and asks that in the charter itself the fields of operation of the Federal and municipal governments shall be thoroughly defined. He also contemplates that a definate basis for the fiscal relations of the two governments shall be established in the charter.

Edward Keating of Colorado at a meet-ing under the auspices of the league at the Ingram Memorial Church. Con-gressman James M. Graham of Illinois was also present and heartily secnois was also present and nearly seconded the proposal of his colleague.

The mass meeting will be called to order at 7 o'clock, for the convenience of the many residents of the suburbs of the many residents of the suburbs who have indicated their purpose to be who have indicated their purpose to be resent, but it probably will be continued far into the evening. It will be preceded by a meeting of the executive committee in Mr. Will's office, in the corne building at ATA School same building, at 4:30 o'clock.

NNAVY YARD WAGE SCALE DUE MONDAY

Declines to Whether Salaries Are to Be

Secretary Daniels announced toda that the decision regarding the new In the fighting today the rebels appeared to be gaining ground slowly, and Ortega let it become known that he expected to push the assault to a conclusion soon. The defenders were conclusion soon. The defenders were connected with Orozoo's rebellion against which contribute the special act of Congress unconnected with Orozoo's rebellion against whether the special act of Congress unconnected with Orozoo's rebellion against whether the special act of Congress unconnected with Orozoo's rebellion against

CHARLES F. NESBIT.

NESBIT IS NAMED

Life Association Chosen as District Official.

Charles F. Nesbit, president of the Masonic Mutual Life Association, today was named by the District Commis sioners as Superintendent of Insurance to succeed George W. Ingham, who re-The announcement of Mr. Ingham' successor was coincident with the announcement of the adoption of spoticy to bring about a reform in the insur ance laws of the District. In the appointment of Mr. Nembitt, is expected to accomplish three import-

"First, A highly efficient administration of the insurance department. wit habsolute fairness and justness to every interest,
"Second. An intelligent, forceful and,

Suggested By Congressman.

The matter has been under consideration by the executive committee of ation by the executive committee of the league for nearly two months. It that will lift the District from antiquity to superiority among the States in this respect.

Broadening of Work.

"Third. A much wider use of the insurance department-and therefore same theory that the police departpartment are at the command of the

Mr. Nesbitt will enter upon his ne duties in about ten days.

JAMES J. FLYNN FIRST 1914 BABY

The stork paid his first visit of 1914 in Washington to Mr. and Mrs. James J. Flynn, of 3816 Fifth street northwest. According to birth certificates for January 1, filed with the Health Department today, the stork arrived at the Flynn home just twenty minutes after midnight, December 31, and brought with him a baby boy. He has been named James Joseph Flynn.

AFTERNOON

President Says There Was Much Ado About Nothing Concerning Talk With Lind. Insists Huerta Must Go.

Convinced Dictator Is Tottering, But Declares Nothing Was Decided About Recognizing the Rebel Forces.

GULFPORT, Miss., Jan. 3 .- The Wilson Mexican policy stands today unchanged. Huerta must go. Until then there can be no hope for any modification of this Government's attitude toward Mexico.

Standing in the sun at a railway crossing in this city today the Chief Executive made this plain. He ended for all time sensational stories that he had decided to change his methods and to substitute force for the present method of diplomatic and financial boycott.

And he also said that John Lind, his personal representative, will start back for Mexico this afternoon without his feet having come once into contact with his home soil.

Much Ado About Nothing.

been much ado about nothing in the visit of Lind. But he volunteered no information as to why it had been natter that fell from the lips of the Chief Executive was his statement that it was much easier to cover ground with a personal conversation As expressed by him, his threehour conference with Lind in the captain's quarters on the deck of the Chester cleared up many matters which would have required the exchange of thousands of telegrams or other written messages.

President Wilson carried with him in his automobile the two sous of John Lind, and in turning them over to Captain Landrey, of the cutter Winona, to take them out to the Chester, he emphasized to them his desire that they finish their visit to the special envoy as soon as possible

Took Camera On Cruiser, The young son and namesake of the Mexican representative wore a flaring mackinaw coat of many colors and carried a small camera. Despite the prohibition against pictures of warships on active service, the President told the revenue captain that the boy might use his picture box. This preliminary disposed of, the Ex-ecutive returned to the assembled news-

TIMES

(Continued on Second Page.)

A SUFFRAGIST LEADER

Out of the Middle West has come a woman of wealth and social power to manage from Washington the intricate machinery of the suffragists' Congressional committee. She is Mrs. Medill McCormick, of Chicago. Her plans and how she is to carry them out form an interesting story which Florence E. Yoder has witten for tomorrow's Times.

WORTH

Two Sides of Filipino Problem

Foreign residents of the Philippine Islands and Filipino residents of Washington have quite different views. John Snure has probed the former phase of the question, and Emmett Dougherty has interviewed the Filipinos. Both will write of the subject in the Sunday Times.

Scandal in U. S. Supply Rental

Rental of Government supplies invites abuse and is often attended by scandal in the opinion of one of the Government's biggest purchasing officers. He tells the reasons why in a story by Ralph A. Collins tomorrow, and gives sound logic for another form of Government ownership.

The Busiest Wealthy Woman

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman is sacrificing all her social obligations to carrying on her work for the Industrial Relations Commission, to which she was appointed by President Wilson last summer. Her daily business program is continuous from break-fast to bed time. Edith Lobert writes of a day in detail in the Sunday Times.

Gretna Green Near Capital

Clergymen and laymen alike in Rockville, Md., are divided over the practice of several of the former in building up a business of performing "rush" marriages. Many residents resent the reputation the town is getting. Read what they have to say in The Sunday Times.

AND ALL THE WORLD'S NEWS WIRED HOURS BEFORE THE MORNING PAPERS PRINT IT